Please do not allow people to use their cellphones on the plane, unless certain "calling" sections are established... similar to the way we have smoking rooms at airports. Cellphone use will just add to the disruption on the plane and make especially long flights unbearable.

Thanks